ASK ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I was struck by the letter from the woman whose husband had life-like dreams and limped around all day after dreaming he had injured his foot. To those who haven't had first-hand experience the letter probably sounded funny.

But it isn't funny, Ann. My father had life-like dreams and for years mother put up with a series of strange experiences which resulted in many sleepless nights.

One night Dad dreamed he was in a supermarket. He got out of bed, grabbed the chair by the wooden arms, pushed it around the room, collected the alarm clock, books and magazines from the bedside table and the framed pictures from the dresser. He even took money from his wallet to pay for the "purchases."

Dad has kicked himself out of bed playing football and pulled down the drapes while blocking a pass. Once he injured his hand striking an imaginary intruder. He hit the wall. The day he hit mother was the day she ordered twin beds. Strangely enough he hasn't done much real-life dreaming since. Maybe this could be the solution for the wife who wrote to you. Please pass it on. — LIZ

Dear Liz: The experts tell us that dreams are often triggered by a noise or because one person's sleep is disturbed by his partner. The fact that twin beds helped solve your mother's problem supports this theory. Consider the word passed — and I hope it helps.

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think of a boss's wife who volunteers to do club work and then hands the job over to her husband's secretary?

I have served on numerous committees as a volunteer. I've written hundreds of letters on my own typewriter, and used my own stationery and stamps. I've made dozens of telephone calls on my own time because I wanted to make a personal contribution to the causes I believe in.

Don't you feel it is fraudulent to accept a job and then turn it over to someone else? — HORSE BEHIND THE SCENE

Dear Horse: Are you doing Madam's club work on your boss's time? If so, (and nothing in your letter indicates otherwise) your complaint is not justifiable. Mrs. Doe makes a contribution by volunteering to do a job even though her husband is paying to get it done. Obviously, Mrs. Doe will not experience the satisfaction of doing it herself but presumably this does not matter to her.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 20 years old, a high school graduate and I have one more year of Navy duty.

I went steady before I joined up. Mae and I were both in high school. She told me I was the first boy she had ever been intimate with but I never believed her.

I haven't seen Mae for over a year. She didn't write for a long time, then six weeks ago I got eight letters from her all at once. She is pregnant and wants me to marry her by mail so the baby will have a name. This baby can't be mine and we both know it. Mae says since I am the guy who started her on sex I owe her marriage. She says we can get divorced later if I want to.

My folks know about this and have told me to make my own decision. I need your help. — SAILOR AT SEA IN MORE WAYS THAN ONE

Dear Sailor: You need this marriage like you need a hole in your hull. The word from here is no, no, no!

If you have trouble getting along with your parents . . . if you can't get them to let you live your own life, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Bugged By Parents? How to Get More Freedom." Send 50c in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Dilce Combs Stops Cordia Lions 64-55

Charles Minks Racks Up 31
As Panthers Capture 2nd Win

Charles Minks pumped in 31 points and Carlson Lewis controlled the backboard with 18 rebounds as Dilce Combs outfought a determined Cordia five 64-55 Tuesday night at Memorial Gymnasium.

Once again it was the deadly marksmanship of Minks which enabled the Panthers to remain undefeated in two games. Minks, held under control by Cordia's scrappy defense in the first half, pulled out all stops in the second half along with senior center Carlson Lewis to give the Panthers the win.

Cordia's defense was not as strong as it was in the first game. Minks was able to get into the key and shoot from there. Lewis was also a factor in the second half, rebounding and blocking shots.

The game was a close one in the first half, but the Panthers pulled away in the second half. Minks finished with 31 points, 10 rebounds, and 5 assists.

Dilce Combs was the only team to score in the second half. They finished with 64 points, 25 rebounds, and 10 assists.

Cordia finished with 55 points, 20 rebounds, and 8 assists. They were unable to keep up with Dilce Combs in the second half.

Annville Tops Buckhorn 77-55 Tuesday Night

Winfred Smith's Buckhorn Wildcats suffered their second straight setback of the season Tuesday night when Annville downed the Wildcats 77-55 at Annville.

Buckhorn got a brilliant 27-point performance from senior forward-center Freddie Merrill, but a balanced Annville attack proved to be too much.

Annville grabbed an 18-10 first quarter lead and coked the Wildcats out of the gym in the second quarter when the home club outscored Buckhorn 26-12 and captured a 44-22 margin at halftime.

Annville coasted during the second half and ended with a 77-55 victory.

Bronson Noble gathered 11 points and Danny Combs scored 11 points for Smith's Wildcats.

Bowling led all scorers for Annville with 25 points followed by Wootton with 18 points. Buckhorn met the M. C. Napier Navajos Friday night at Memorial Gymnasium in its next game.

At Annville (77) — Hurdley 9, Brown 4, Moore 11, Bowling 25, McDowell 2, Wootton 18, Bowling 8.

Buckhorn (55) — Noble 11, Patton 2, Merrill 27, Stamper 2, Combs 11, Baker 2.

Smith Expects Fast Break; Combs Saying Nothing

By Arlis Fields

After tomorrow night area basketball fans will find out why M. C. Napier cage coach Albert Combs is keeping silent about his group of hoopsters.

The Navajos will open their season in Memorial gym, 7:30 p.m. against the Buckhorn Wildcats of rookie coach Winfred Smith.

Buckhorn has already had its first taste of game firing, losing to Dilce Combs 70-59 last Friday night.

Smith, a good performer at a 6-4 senior, Freddy Merrill, against the Panthers last is expected to make a change for Friday.

Joe Duff, 6-3 sophomore, is expected to take over for Merrill at forward and Bronson Noble, 6-1 senior, at the corner post.

Game at guards for Buckhorn will probably be seniors Pat Combs, 5-9 and Clarence Baker, 6-11.

In an interview late yesterday afternoon Napier's mentor still would say nothing about what kind of team he will have this year, other than, "we will have five boys playing together instead of five individualists."

Napier will not rest after the Buckhorn affair, on Saturday night the Lee County Bobcats will be here for a contest.

Lee County is under a new coach in Heber Dunaway, who succeeded Harold Flynn just before the school year started.

The Bobcats are headed by Mitchell Stamper, 6-1 senior forward, who was chosen for all-district honors last year.

After Lee County the Navajos will be back in action against Cordia on November 16.

National Jaycee Group Endorses Viet Nam Policy

According to Harold H. Hudson, Hazard Jaycee, who is a national director of the Kentucky Jaycees, the 260,000 member National Jaycee group has endorsed a Stay Tough Policy by the United States in the Viet Nam crisis.

James A. Skidmore, President of the U. S. Jaycees, reported to President Johnson that the Young Men's Civic Group endorsed the policy of the United States through a recently completed referendum vote of the Jaycees' 5,700 chapters in the 50 states and the District of Columbia. The 33 year old leader of the Jaycees told the president that the Jaycees took this stand because they realize that "To achieve victory over Communist Aggression, forces as well as diplomatic resources are often necessary".

The National Jaycees were the first organization to give full endorsement to the peace time draft in 1940.

"Now as in 1940, we do not find it easy to enter into conflict. We fear war more than anyone, for it directly affects the lives of our members, the young men of America," said the Jaycees president.

"More than 92 per cent of our members are veterans and young men who will be called upon to defend their nation," added Skidmore. "Our referendum pointed out that responsible action in Viet Nam using military forces, diplomatic and all other public and private resources to protect these principles is for all freedom loving people." Skidmore added "As long as there are men who hate and destroy, this nation must continue to have the courage to resist or all that we have built and stood for will crumble."

Selective Service Announces Call

Local Board No. 81 of the Selective Service System has announced its draft call for the month of November.

This month's call is the lightest since President Johnson announced the buildup in U. S. manpower caused by the Viet Nam situation.

Call for induction on November 18 are: Joe Bernard Pratt, James Logan Cole, Denny Colyer Jr. and Leon Porter, transferred from Jeffersonville, Ind.

Ordered to report on the same day for the pre-induction physical examination are: Bobby Howard, Baker, Patrick Henry Davidson, Willard Morris, James Monroe Radford, Paul Marshall, David Critt Bait-

Our Area Schools

A new spark has been kindled and there may be new hope for the children of Perry County to get a better education and secondary education from our local schools.

One of the most important in the field of our country's education, I should say, has been the school system in Eastern Kentucky.

For years students in this area have been told that the school system was the best in the state. But now we know that is not true. The school system in this area is one of the poorest in the state. It is one of the poorest in the nation. It is one of the poorest in the world.

In the State of Kentucky, the school system is one of the poorest in the nation. It is one of the poorest in the world. It is one of the poorest in the universe.

Folks now that the election is over, let's all bury the hatchet of who won or lost. Let's all work together for a common cause that will benefit our area. Forget whatever Political Party you belong to. Now is the time for unity of all our peoples under various programs that have been set up by FEDERAL AND STATE PROGRAMS, yes to help the economic situation in EASTERN KY.

IT HAS BEEN STATED

Time and time again that there was more meetings held in Hazard in regard to plan and research this I can recall since the 1927 Flood. Not only on flood control, but on any subject you might name. To plan and research is fine, we need it.

Do we need it year after year with out any action? Here we will soon be entering into flood with out any flood control to this date except on paper. To you the newly elected officers of this County I for one would like to see you pledge your tenure of office to just more than carrying out the regular duties of what is required of you. If we are to be a County and City we all must work together to obtain the things that could be made available to us. I feel that the planning and progress stages should have been over a long time ago. Now is the time for action.

I QUOTE FROM

A statement made by Mr. Ernest Swift, President of the National Wildlife Federation. More Study and Research can be likened to a pole with a street light atop it. It can be used for illumination or something simply to lean against. More "study" is one of the oldest of dodges in the handling of Public Issues. A study can go into infinity without conclusion.

WEEKLY DISCUSSION OF STATE GOVERNMENT

Agree Or Not

I Say What I Think

By S. C. VAN CUBON

By S. C. Van Curon

FRANKFORT Ky.—The overwhelming Republican victory in Louisville and Jefferson County last Tuesday should be the warning to the Democratic Party in Kentucky about the gubernatorial race in 1967.

If the Republicans have been entertaining doubt about their selection for a standard bearer, the unprecedented margin rolled up by County Judge Marlow Cook should remove all doubt.

The 50,000-plus majority he received over the Democratic candidates sets him apart as the brightest political star in Kentucky in this century. Not only that, but he helped Republican Kenneth Schmeelke plaster Democrat Marlin Voss for the mayorship by an almost record margin.

Unfortunately, Gray Cook at 39 exudes personality that captivates an audience and makes a deep impression. Not by appearance alone, but because he backs it up with facts and a line of thought that breeds confidence between him and his audience. He's articulate, witty, knowledgeable and convincing.

The Democratic organization in Louisville and Jefferson County could be doing better. But after the thunderous victory Tuesday, after four years of drought in the Third District, the Democrats face another four years of a waiting situation.

But the biggest trouble is that they must recall this organization in less than 10 months. The Democrats hope to recapture the largest voting congressional district in the state. First seems like an impossible situation since they have no jobs to pass out at the City or County level.

Cook was some short of President Lyndon B. Johnson's margin there last year, but this was an off election year and the federal margin could not be relied into play. Cook's 50,000 plus majority stamps him as the man for the Democrats to beat for Governor in 1967.

It is well here to look back at the figures of the 1963 gubernatorial race when Governor Edward T. Breathitt edged out Republican Louis B. Nunn by a scant 13,053 votes. Breathitt polled 143,551 statewide while Nunn was getting 130,498. Nunn's margin in Jefferson County was only 4,134.

Consider that Jefferson County accounted for a total of 184,850 votes in the 1963 race, or more than 20 per cent of the vote of the entire state, and anyone can readily see the problem the Democrats face in 1967.

Cook's victory heartens the Republicans and Republican Joe Johnson's victory in the twenty judges race in Fayette County forges the axis between Kentucky's two most important cities upon which to build a machine for Republican victory in 1967.

Cook swept in his party, taking four Senate seats and 14 House seats in the General Assembly. This could be the real foundation upon which to build issues during the 1965 session for the 1967 campaign. The victory should make Cook's voice strong in Republican organization plans and strategy. The signs are all there of what the Democrats can expect.

Don't forget the national angle. Cook should attract plenty of support from National Republican Headquarters for the race in 1967. For 1968 is a presidential year, and Republican capture of the statehouse would build confidence for the presidential year.

There are plenty of attractive Republicans of the younger and more flexible breed that Cook could attract to a statewide ticket—Johnson, Circuit Judge Henry Meigs of Frankfort, or any action being taken. People who demand action are forced to fight straw men until the study is concluded, and it is seldom concluded. To me no truer words were ever spoken than what Mr. Swift stated. If we the people, and our elected officers don't look forward to a scope beyond of our present day living or a look to the future for the generations that are following in our footsteps, we can't be content to what you now have and hold, you as the elected officials of this area will have to arise to take advantages of what will be offered for our people, use them wisely, without prejudice for the benefits of all. We have been it an enlightened age for some time. Let's not continue to retard our area for selfish reasons. Let's all take advantages of what might come our way.

WE WHO HAVE ATTENDED

So many meetings, let's analyze what has been done, let's put something into effect. Let's get off the learning pole, let's light it up. Remember this is a job for all of us. Let's get away from promises, let's have some action, remember it must come from all. No one man can do it or no one party can accomplish this. It must be a LOT OF PRIDE SHOWN BY ALL. Other areas have done it here in Eastern Ky. Let's prove our selves here on the North Fork of the Ky. River, The Middle Fork, The South Fork. We are in the head waters section that supplies water to our friends below. Let's start thinking of our water problems now, few years from now will be to late this not only pertains to us in the valleys of Eastern Ky., remember it has a vital bearing on all peoples, cities that use water from the Ky. River and its tributaries.

Senator Donald Johnson of Alexandria, Clarence Miller of Shelbyville who was undersecretary of agriculture under President Eisenhower for 7 years. No one and others to fill the elective offices of Kentucky.

Thus the Democrats must exercise extreme care in selecting their ticket for 1967.

Thru the Years

Quotations from Herald stories of yesterday, reporting THIS WEEK in our history.

Probably the most important news item we have to offer for the current week is the purchase of an automobile by Mr. J. P. Warren. It is said that the machine is a Ford and will be here this week.

It is the first auto ever owned and operated by a Perry County man in Perry County, and it is said that the machine is a Ford and will be here this week.

We wish to congratulate Mr. Warren upon his investment for we believe it will be the starting point for better streets and better roads. Others will follow his lead and will get behind any movement looking toward the betterment of the streets and roads, with the result that it is entirely probable that the good road movement will be given an impetus that will not stop until a system of good pike roads are an actual fact.

Mr. Frank Horn is erecting a fine residence on the lot where Mr. C. M. Horn formerly lived on Broadway. This will be a decided improvement for that part of town. We would suggest to the new Council that they take steps to widen this street and lay concrete walks on either side.

1923

An important real estate deal was closed last week when the newly organized Christian Church bought a lot on Lytle Boulevard from A. B. Messer. The lot will be used for a church and a paragon to be erected in the near future. The property faces 150 feet on Lytle Boulevard and has a depth of 200 feet. It is considered one of the finest building lots in the city.

1935

Denver Miniard and Robert Tallent were winners of the two places on the Perry County Board of Education in the election of November 5. Miniard led the field of seventeen candidates with 1472 votes. Tallent received 1350.

There was spent for all purposes in the Hazard city schools last year $89,868.54. This includes $26,058.35 spent on the debt. This is a per capita cost of $35.95 for the enrollment.

Kentucky Gridders Invade Houston

According to a recent popular tune, supposed to be a pleasant experience. The by Dean Martin song to Houston, the lyrics weren't written by Johnny Van Hout.

The Kentucky Gridders, who have been in Houston for a week, are now in the midst of a four-game tour of the state. The team, which is coached by Coach Charlie Bradshaw, is made up of players from various parts of the state. They are now in the midst of a four-game tour of the state.

Kentucky's single-season passing records found the Vandy defense unprepared to stop the passing game last week and unselfishly limited his passes while calling Bird's number 22 times. Norton hit 9 of 14 passes for 85 yards while Bird was gaining 133 yards and scoring

"We felt before the season began that Houston would have an excellent football team," says Kentucky coach Charlie Bradshaw. "They had some injuries and kind of lost their way for a few games I think. But they proved Saturday night that they are everything we were afraid they would be. Ole Miss is a good football team, but Houston gave them a sound beating."

TAKE YOUR FAMILY TO CHURCH THIS SUNDAY

5 EASY 5 HARD
by Henderson Harvey

1. What captain in David's army did David indirectly cause to be killed in order to cover up his OWN SIN in relation to this captain's wife?
2. What nationality was this man?
3. Which one of David's sons did God permit to construct the temple?
4. What neighboring king sent materials and craftsmen down to help in this great project?
5. In what city was it built?
6. When Adam was given the choice of obeying or disobeying God, did Adam "stand" or "fall"?
7. According to the PLAIN teachings of the Bible and our own personal experiences how did you and I do when we reached the age of accountability in regard to this same test?
8. What man was born into the world who was able, somehow, to pass this test?
9. Did this man face the proposition one day as to whether he should use his extraordinary talents for his own pleasures or follow the hard path his Heavenly Father had laid out for him?
10. Was this man, who relied on God the Father as he lived out his life here on earth, really the Son of God, who had humbled Himself as a human in order that you and I might have eternal life?
